

GENERATION 50 SEATING

SKU: 301.0139

Description

Generation 50 Bench is a contemporary, highly versatile seating element designed by Robert Chipman to complement a wide range of architectural styles. Available backed or backless, with curved or straight face boards, and multiple mounting options including traditional, cantilevered, top-of-wall and wall-mounted configurations, it adapts seamlessly to diverse public realm applications. Cast aluminium supports pair with warm, naturally weathering woods such as thermally modified ash, ipe and jarrah, delivering durability with refined design detail. The bench length is 72 inches, with options for end and centre arms to fine-tune comfort and accessibility.
